FAMILY WERE POISONED

And Mrs. A. C. Jessen Is Quite Sick at the Family Home From Ptomaine Poison.

Mrs. A. C. Jessen is reported quite sick at the family home on Dallas street, as the result of ptomaine poisoning, resulting from eating salmon salad Thursday night. Mr. Jessen and other members of the family were made sick at the same time, but all have recovered except Mrs. Jessen, and she is seriously ill.

Mayor Bowers In Houston.

Mayor Bowers of Palestine was a business visitor in the city yesterday. Mr. Bowers is of the opinion that there is not a better city in Texas—or in the whole world, for that matter—than Palestine. The consistent growth of the city within the past few years, coupled with the municipal improvements which have been made, and which are being made, insures for Palestine a niche in the Texas hall of fame, according to the city's mayor.—Today's Houston Post.

Prof. Buck and Mr. Strickland made talks on educational matters and Judge Funderburk spoke on good roads. They report a very pleasant and profitable occasion.

Storm Danger Past.

Tampa, Fla., Oct. 14.—A message from the government wireless station at Key West at 7:20 o'clock reported the steamship Olifette just outside the bar unable to make port on account of the heavy seas. The wind abated at about fifty to sixty miles. The steamer Comus, spoken forty miles west of Tortugas, is proceeding on her course. She reports a wind velocity of sixty miles an hour. At 10 o'clock tonight the local weather bureau announced that the storm is receding along a parabolic path that will carry it north or northeastward of the Gulf Stream. This indicates that it will cross the southern portion of Florida.

The boundary commission will establish government supervision over water from the Rio Grande.

Cole Younger and Jesse James. For over twenty years they were at war with the officials of the United States, when at last they met their Waterloo at Northfield, Minn., in the year of 1869, when the cashier of the First National Bank was killed and the three Younger brothers were captured. Frank and Jesse James making their escape. The play, "The Younger Brothers," will be seen at the big tent theatre tonight, when the engagement of the Rentfrow's Jolly Pathfinders will close. The action of the play takes place in Missouri, just previous to the breaking out of the civil war, and shows the better part of the lives of Cole and Bob Younger, who finally became the worst outlaws known to criminal history. A $10.00 souvenir will be given away after the performance.
